Report of the President and Directors.

NEW YORK, December 1st, 1884.

To the Patrons and Members of Mount Sinai Hospital:

Being delegated by you to dispense your offerings on the altar of benevolence for the relief of the poor sick in our midst, we present for your review the annual exhibit of our management of an institution the name and reputation of which, are dear to us all.

The Mount Sinai Hospital has become a synonym of much that is noble and elevating in man. Its work (though imperfectly done, as all of man's labors) reflects to the world at large the goodness of heart of those who so willingly maintain this cosmopolitan and charitable institution.

During the year ending November 30th, 2,237 patients were treated, being 204 in excess of the previous year, and by far the largest number received in any one year during the existence of our institution. Reference to the report of the Executive Committee will show that 95 per cent. of this number were free patients; 2,100 sick gratuitously provided for in one year displays a picture of benevolence requiring no elaboration on our part.

A similar increase demonstrates itself in the statistics of our Dispensary where 40,300 consultations, necessitating 50,200 prescriptions, were gratuitously extended.

FINANCES.

While our task and consequent expenditures have thus increased, we regret our inability to record a corresponding addition in our receipts. It is true that our income from members and patrons is larger than in 1883 (thanks for which are due to the zealous efforts of a committee of our members), yet our receipts from other sources have decreased to a large extent, so that the entire sum received in 1884 aggregates $74,685.32 as against $104,274.40 in 1883. It is, nevertheless, most gratifying to note that we collected $41,130.00 from patrons and members, which is $6,000.00 more than in the preceding year; that obtained from other sources is, as we have repeatedly stated, a variable, unreliable income, and with the expenses at a minimum of $65,000.00, there is cause on the part of our constituents to increase in their endeavors for the enrolling of new members until a sum is obtained from regular contributors which shall amply provide for our necessities, and allow any other receipts to be added to our permanent fund, thus yielding an increased income in interest from the latter source. In this way Mount Sinai Hospital would be so endowed as to insure it against any deficit and enable it to enlarge its philanthropic field still so inadequate for the wants of our fast-growing city.

The permanent fund has attained the sum of $156,500.00, an increase during the year of $19,937.50, which resulted from the balance of $26,569.32 in the hands of the Treasurer at the close of our report in 1883. The present balance of $13,326.18 with the Treasurer represents the $7,000.00 from last year in excess of the amount invested for the permanent fund, and the $6,000.00 saved this year from our income over expenditures.

Perpetual beds were dedicated:

By the family to the memory of Emanuel Hoffman, and

By the family to the memory of Siegmund Spingarn.

Suitable tablets were placed over beds in our wards commemorative of these persons' charitable promptings in thus making provision in behalf of the afflicted and the suffering.

The legacies and bequests during the current year amounted to $2,519.68, as will appear in detail in the report of the Finance Committee.

EXPENSES.

The total disbursements were $67,937.63 as against $65,447.69 in 1883; this includes $7,370.62 for the support of the Dispensary and $1,167.85 for improvements. In view of the larger results obtained in the number treated in the indoor and outdoor departments, this small increase in expenditures indicates that the Hospital is managed with due economy, blended with a proper liberality for the comfort of our patients.

The entire assets consisting of moneys loaned on bond and mortgage, cash in hands of Treasurer, special trust funds for the Children's Ward, for Convalescents, and the Lilienthal fund, amount to $174,842.70. In 1883 our entire assets of like nature amounted to $167,997.81, all of which is fully presented to you in detail in the report of our Finance Committee.

This day of our meeting is being generally observed by collections to the fund of the Hospital Saturday and Sunday Association. Contributions were also received on the 27th inst., in our places of worship and elsewhere. These annual efforts indicate a recognition by the community of the importance of maintaining the work of the hospitals and the readiness of the public to respond to their appeals. This warm interest is becoming more marked in each year, and we look forward thereto as no inconsiderable means towards providing for the expenses of our hospitals generally.

It is with sad emotions that we record the untimely and early demise of Rev. Dr. Adolph Hubsch. In his death the entire community has lost one of its most gifted and illustrious teachers, and the world at large a most profound scholar. Men such as he ennoble the human race, and though taken away from the worldly stage, he leaves the impress of his good work upon posterity. Days fleeting by will not dim the lustre of his memory, nor will time efface the reverence in which the name of Dr. Adolph Hubsch is held by his coreligionists, and by all who knew him.

Alas! the hand of death has touched many others of our esteemed public-spirited citizens and contributors to our institution, and we record with a feeling of sadness the death of the following members :

In our public charities a missing link, so long felt, and so often commented upon, has at last been supplied by the establishment of the Home for Chronic Invalids, dedicated to the name of our illustrious centenarian, Sir Moses Montefiore, whom this as well as all communities take special occasion to honor in recognition of the many unexampled acts of philanthropy to which he has devoted his life.

Thus has shelter been provided for a class of patients generally refused admission to hospitals, for want of suitable provisions in their behalf; a class doubly unfortunate, being sick, poor, and frequently incurable. Here they will find rest, and kind hands will minister to their comfort, and ease their journey through life. So noble an enterprise has a sympathetic accord, and will, no doubt, receive the generous support of our entire community.

The resignations of our directors, Harmon Nathan and Jacob H. Schiff, have deprived us of the valuable services of two members of our Board, who by counsel and action have contributed in no small degree to the progress of the Hospital. Though their official connection may be severed, we know their warm interest in this as well as in other charitable institutions continues. In retiring they retain the esteem and well-wishes of their colleagues.

On the 16th of November, the Hospital was opened to the general public for inspection and many of our members, and others, availed themselves of this opportunity. As heretofore, the ladies of the Auxiliary Society had the management on this occasion, and the good results achieved, mainly due to their efforts, justifies us in according them words of praise and expressions of gratitude.

As in the past, the ministers of our Temples, the Press, many warm-hearted ladies, as well as our contributors and donors, have vied with each other in their kind efforts to enhance the work of Mount Sinai Hospital, and thus, with their co-operation and aid, lighten the labors of those in whose charge it is temporarily placed. We cannot, therefore, close this report without offering tribute to them all for their charitable promptings, exemplified in their good deeds in behalf of those who are the grateful recipients of their benevolence.

Man is but the creature of circumstance, and in his great struggle in life, alas, how oft, weary and sick does he fall by the roadside, unable to plod further on his journey! The strong and noble-hearted, following in his path, lend a strengthening hand to succor and relieve their fellow man less fortunate than they, and thus manifest that there exists in us all an unselfish spirit, an innate feeling of our own weakness which bands us together; though self-reliant, yet relying on others; though strong, yet weak; though some are blessed with plenty, yet are others in want. Philanthropy is thus practiced from those emanations of the heart which ennoble and enrich us as a people.

May the outpouring of our beneficence become greater from time to time, may the distressed be ever relieved, and all mankind be a mutual support in time of trouble. May Mount Sinai Hospital be a perpetual blessing to one and all who come within its sphere of action.

These figures throughout in the treatment of patients exhibit the greatest amount of work done in any one year during the existence of the Hospital, and at the same time show a large decrease in the per capita cost per patient as compared with the last or preceding years.

The reduction in the death rate is no doubt due to the great advance made in scientific directions, together with the efficiency of our Visiting and House staffs, to which may properly be added the important factor of an improved system of nursing; these have been the means of saving life and attaining results which are the highest aims of an institution like ours.

DISPENSARY.

We refer casually to that important branch of our hospital—its Dispensary. A detailed report of its work will be submitted to you by its Committee. Sufficient for us to say that it afforded 40,300 consultations to applicants and supplied 50,602 prescriptions, all of which were gratuitous.

Our wards continue in charge of the corps of nurses furnished to us from the Mount Sinai Training School. The benefits resulting to our patients from this system of nursing by experienced competent persons cannot be too highly appreciated, and it therefore causes us all the more concern and regret that the lady managers of this excellent school report that there is still a lack of public support in behalf of a philanthropic work which has been but too generally under-estimated. It would indeed be a loss to our institution, to our patients, and to the community in general, if the good objects of this institution were in the slightest degree impaired or its philanthropic aims abandoned. We earnestly hope that the public will more generally interest itself in the maintenance of the Mount Sinai Training School.

To the many auxiliaries, benefactors and co-laborers, who apply heart and hand to our work, and to whose efforts much of the renown justly accorded to our institution is due, we make just recognition of their great fidelity and devotion to this most sacred cause. Foremost among these we make mention of our excellent staff of visiting physicians and surgeons, the noble unselfish work of the ladies of the Auxiliary Society, and the constant co-operation of the United Hebrew Charities.

The attachés of the hospital are to be commended for their good discipline and faithfulness, much of which may be attributed to the able management and good example shown by our Superintendent and Matron, Mr. and Mrs. Hadel. It is no mere formality, nor from the observance of any custom that we speak in praise of the most satisfactory manner in which the duties of the Superintendent are discharged, as well as of the good results achieved in all departments by the conscientious attention and gentle influence brought to bear by our excellent matron, Mrs. Hadel.

We thank the many donors to the Hospital for their offerings, in behalf of distressed humanity; the knowledge that they have administered to the wants of the sick is to them more recompense than anything we can express in mere words.

Without diverging into sentimental reflections, often brought so forcibly to our minds by the many phases of the sad pictures presented in hospital life, we realize that the practical good attained is being daily more recognized by our community, who more willingly, and in constantly increased numbers, contribute to the support and maintenance of a work so essential and so broadly and liberally extended to all who properly come within the scope of its aims. May our institution continue in its sphere of usefulness, growing in the estimation of our people, accomplishing in a still greater degree its humane mission of affording relief to the poor and the sick in our midst.

Respectfully submitted.

Report of the Dispensary Committee for the Fiscal Year, ending Nov. 30, 1884.

To the President and Board of Directors of the Mount Sinai Hospital :

The annual report of the various departments of the Dispensary submitted by your Committee, shows that the success, which has attended the efforts of the officers in the past, has again crowned their labors this year; and we have reason to feel gratified that we can present as satisfactory a report, as we now submit.

Our staff of physicians and surgeons have sustained their reputation for skill and zeal, and have proven themselves faithful to their trust, inasmuch as the advice and treatment bestowed, have shown them to be reliable and efficient.

Although the number of consultations and prescriptions for the year of 1883, was the largest we ever had, 1884 shows a material increase over that, proving that our good work is steadily increasing.

The records the different departments exhibit for the fiscal year, ending November 30, 1884, as follows :

	CONSULTATIONS.	PRESCRIPTIONS
Internal Department,	16,691	20,364
Children's Department,	8,801	12,991
Surgical Department,	9,185	10,183

Prescriptions issued to the Home of the Aged and Infirm Hebrews, Hebrew Sheltering Guardian So- ciety, and Miscellaneous Charitable Institutions,		1,022
		<hr/>
Total,		67,260

An increase of 553 consultations, and 2,281 prescriptions over the previous year.

The Dispensary was open 305 days during the year.

Daily average number of consultations,	132.13
“ “ “ “ prescriptions,	217.14
Largest number of applicants for medical aid in one day,	204
Largest number of prescriptions in one day,	264
The expenses for drugs were,	$4,020 73
“ “ “ medical appliances and rubber goods,	1,324 84
“ “ “ artificial legs and surgical instruments,	1,156 61
The expenses for liquors, wines, mineral waters,	2,068 90
Average cost of each prescription for drugs,	6 $\frac{7}{10}$ c.
Average cost of each prescription for drugs and medical appliances	8 $\frac{7}{10}$ c.
Expenses of the Dispensary,	$7,370 62
Average cost of each applicant,	18c.

During the year the following changes have occurred in the Dispensary Staff :

I. Weil, M. D., resigned, and M. R. Richard, M. D., appointed.

E. Fredenberg, M. D., resigned, and J. A. Roth, M. D., appointed.

I. P. Oberndorfer, M. D., resigned, and S. Lewengood, M. D., appointed.

Victoria A. White, M. D., resigned, and A. S. Daniels, M. D., appointed.

Dr. J. G. Wallach was transferred from the Surgical Department to the Gynæcological Department, to fill vacancy occasioned by the resignation of Dr. R. Tauszky; and Dr. R. Offenbach was transferred from the Children's Department to the Surgical Department, to fill vacancy occasioned by the transfer of Dr. J. G. Wallach.

The benefits bestowed by our Institution, have, as heretofore, been regardless of creed or nationality, and all who have applied for relief have received the same zealous care.

When we consider the noble work we are engaged in, the restoration to health of the sick and suffering, we may justly feel that our efforts have not been in vain, and that the consciousness of having fulfilled our duty to our fellow-men, has more than doubly repaid us for the time and money we have been called upon to expend.

Much remains to be done, and we trust that all of us may persevere and use our own endeavors to promote what has cost so much to inaugurate.

Respectfully submitted,

S. SOMMERICH, Chairman.

A. B. ANSBACHER.
